

Cour
Pénale
Internationale

International
Criminal
Court

THE TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

A devout man in prayer in front of the Djingareyber Mosque minaret in Timbuktu, a powerful symbol of the resilience of the local community. Through heritage preservation measures, the TFV programme helped restore sites of profound cultural and spiritual significance to Muslim populations, and which were destroyed in attacks taking place between 30 June and 11 July in 2012. Credit: MINUSMA/Marco Dormino.

Cour
Pénale
Internationale

International
Criminal
Court

THE TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

Heritage protection measures implemented by UNESCO, a partner of the Trust Fund for Victims, included the rehabilitation and reconstruction of the boundary walls of the Sidi Mahmoud Ben Omar Mohamed Aquit and Cheick Sidi El Mokhtar Ben Sidi Mouhammad Al Kabir Al Kounti cemeteries, which house several mausoleums, as well as tree planting at the Three Saints and Alpha Moya cemeteries. These measures aim to protect Timbuktu's cultural heritage for future generations. Credit: © Nicolas RÉMÉNÉ / 2024

Cour
Pénale
Internationale

International
Criminal
Court

THE TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

As part of the collective reparations programme implemented by the Trust Fund for Victims, Groundbreaking Ceremony for the Construction of an Additional Wing of the Timbuktu Municipal Museum as part of the memorialisation measure chosen by the community of Timbuktu. Credit: CFOGRAD / TFV 2024.

Entrance to the Timbuktu Municipal Museum. As part of the collective reparations programme, the museum was rehabilitated and extended to host a permanent exhibition on Protected Buildings, preserving the memory of the destruction of Timbuktu's mausoleums and historic monuments and educating future generations about their cultural and spiritual significance. Credit: Hameye Toure /TFV 2022.

Cour
Pénale
Internationale

International
Criminal
Court

THE TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

Aerial view of Timbuktu, home to more than 70,000 members of the community who benefited from the reparations programme implemented by the Trust Fund for Victims in the Ahmad Al Faqi Al Mahdi case. Credit: Nicolas Reméné / 2021.

Cour
Pénale
Internationale

International
Criminal
Court

THE TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

The Louha memorial, inaugurated in Timbuktu in October 2024, commemorates the victims of crimes committed in 2012. Named after the Arabic word for the Koranic tablet, the monument symbolises the resilience of the Timbuktu community and forms part of the memorialisation measures implemented under the reparations programme. Credit: Hameye Touré / TFV 2024.

Cour
Pénale
Internationale

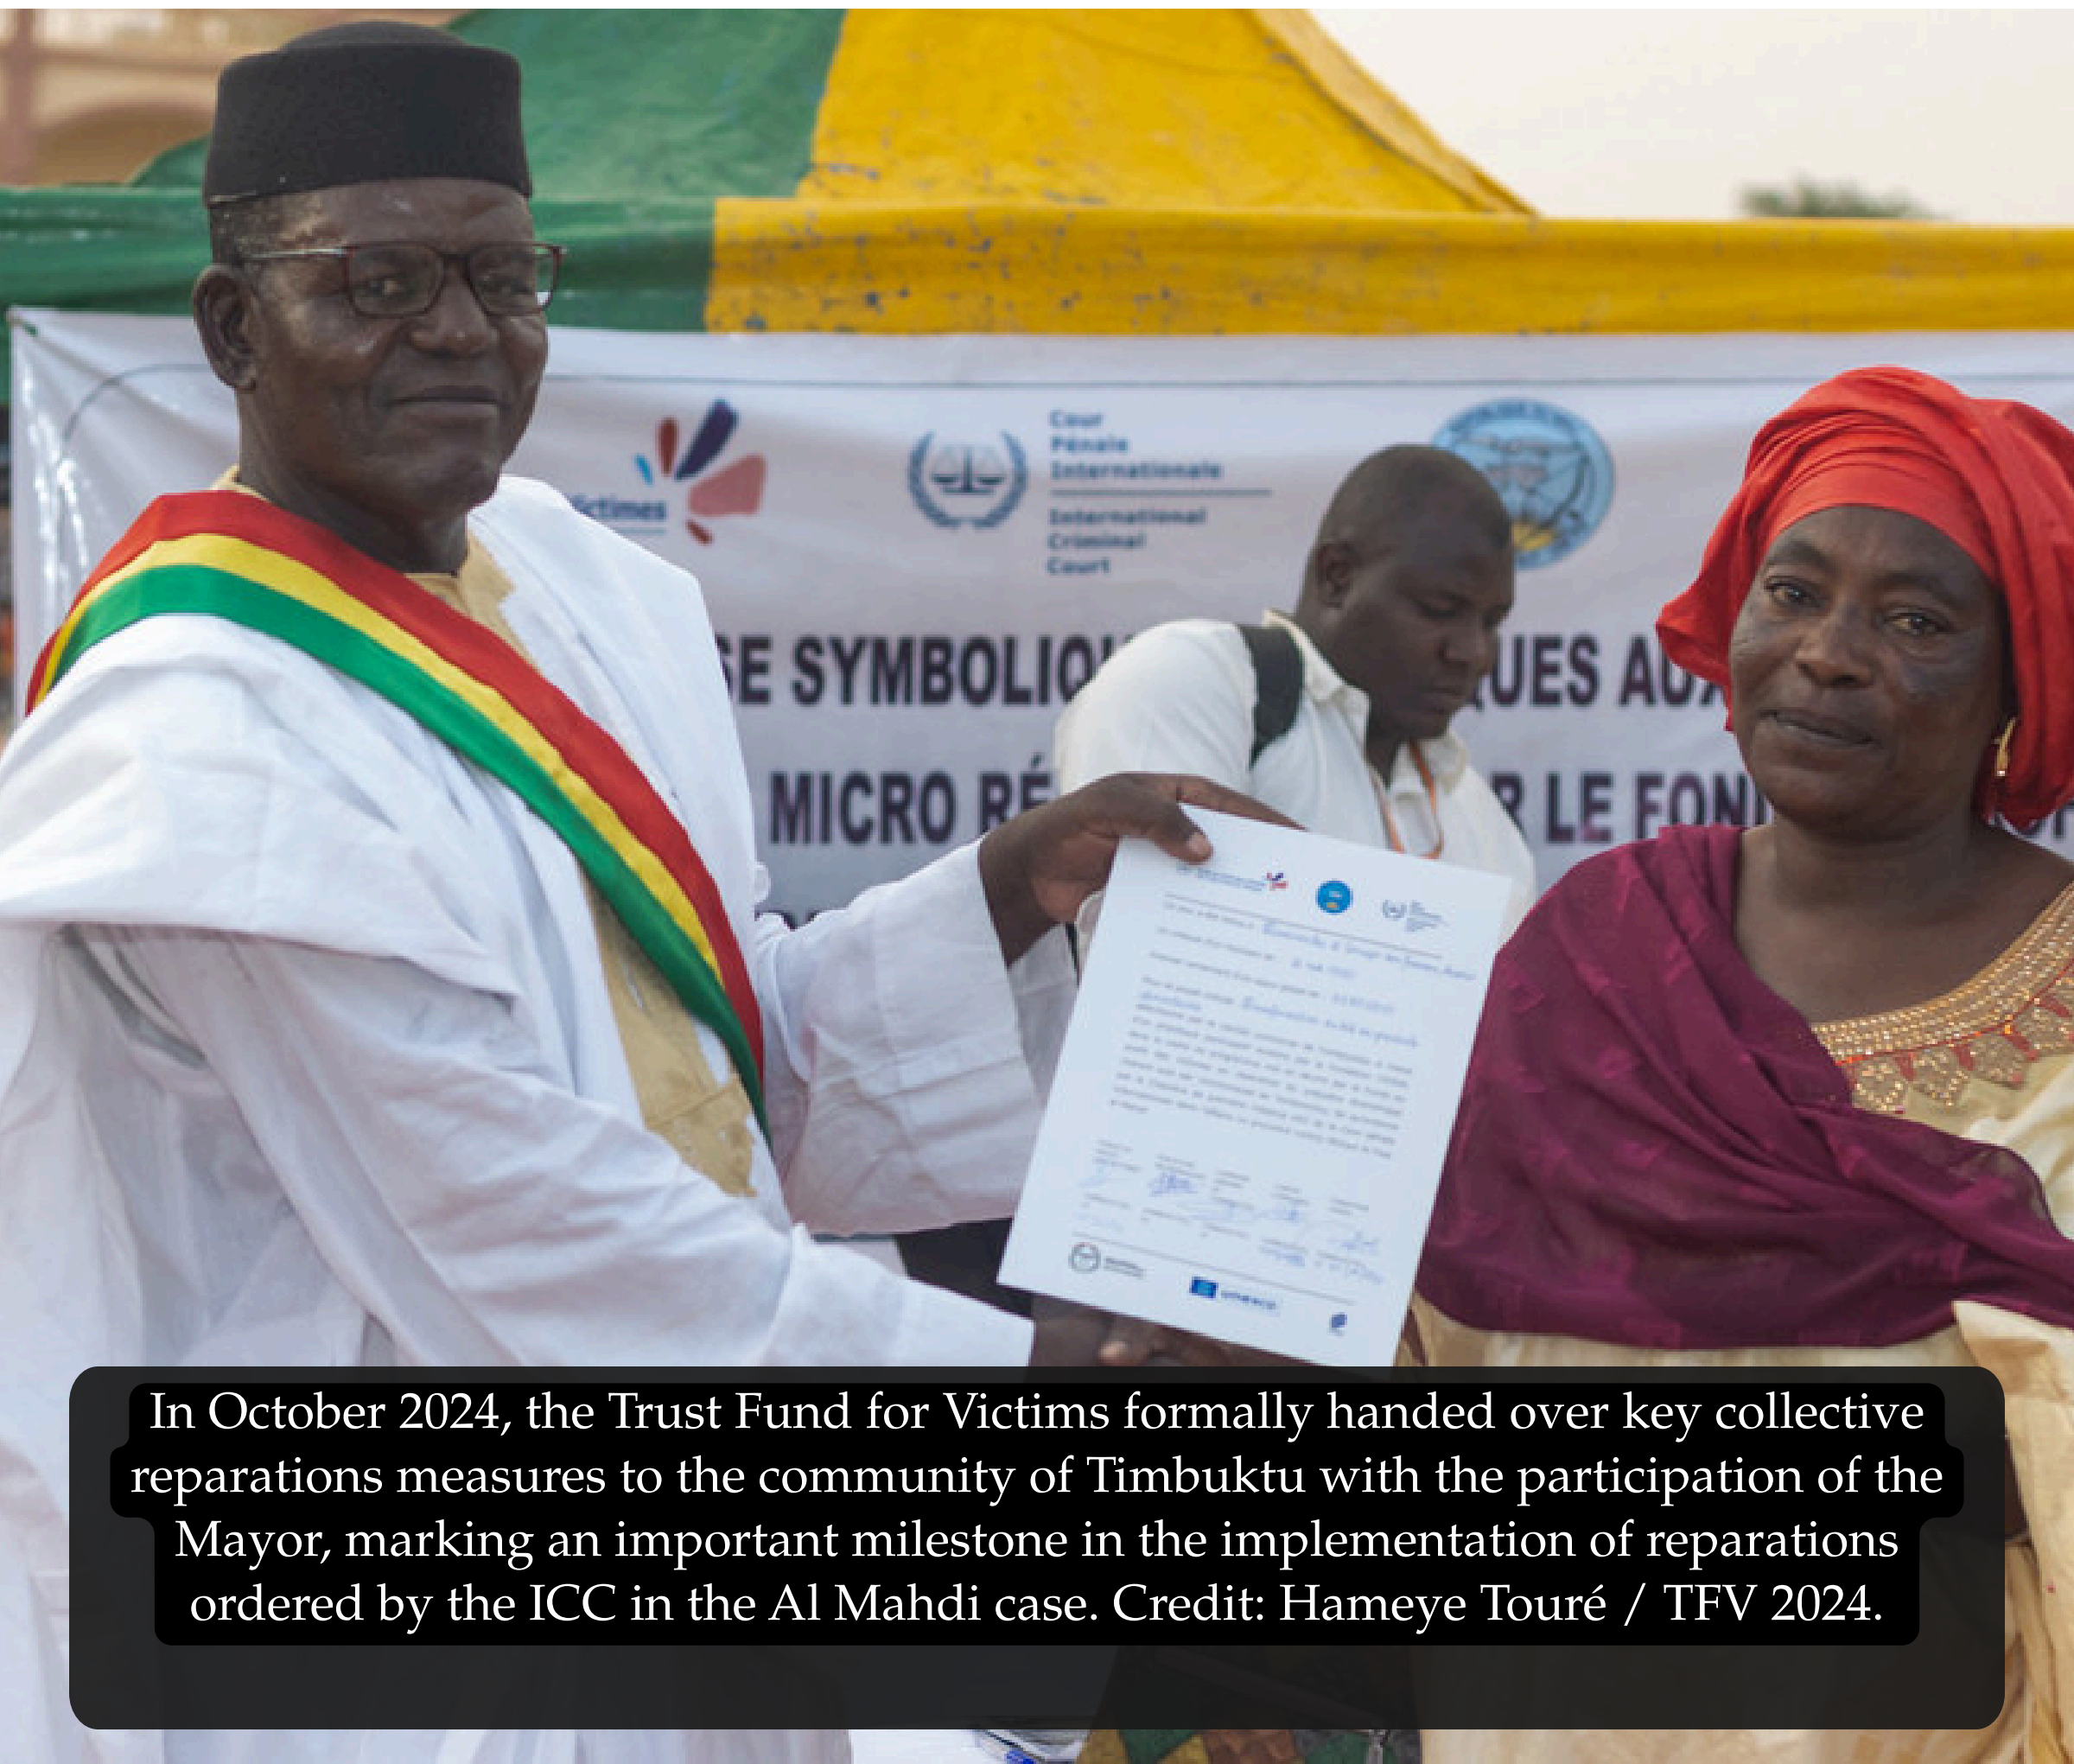

International
Criminal
Court

THE TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

Representatives of the Government of Mali, the Trust Fund for Victims and implementing partners inaugurate in October 2024 the protective enclosure of the Cheick Sidi El Mokhtar El Kounti cemetery in Timbuktu as part of the collective reparations programme in the Al Mahdi case. Credit: Hameye Touré / TFV 2024.

In October 2024, the Trust Fund for Victims formally handed over key collective reparations measures to the community of Timbuktu with the participation of the Mayor, marking an important milestone in the implementation of reparations ordered by the ICC in the Al Mahdi case. Credit: Hameye Touré / TFV 2024.

Cour
Pénale
Internationale

International
Criminal
Court

THE TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

Handcraft workshop supported under the economic reparations component of the Al Mahdi reparations programme, aimed at strengthening livelihoods and promoting community recovery in Timbuktu. Credit: Hameye Touré / TFV 2024.